

ALLINGTON FAMILY FARM CSA

3/6/2020

Welcoming Travis, Zoe and their family at Allington Family Farm CSA to our CSA Australia & New Zealand community.

Located in the Harvey Hills, Allington Family Farm produces ethical and sustainable lamb their farm consists of several leased properties spread over around 500 acres. They have just under 1500 Merino sheep, and a family of free-range Berkshire pigs.

Their farming model has change towards more direct to consumer which includes individual customers and supply local restaurants.

They now supply to their CSA customers and restaurants from Perth, down to Yallingup, Margaret River and Dunsborough.

Travis and Zoe have integrated strong ethics of animal management into their practice and they are passionate about their transparency : You can read more about on their website :<https://www.allingtonfamilyfarm.com/the-farm> or contact them directly if you are interested in either volunteering, visiting us on the farm at some point or participating on one of their Open Farm Days, Volunteer Days and other exciting opportunities!

THE ALLINGTON FAMILY FARM V A L U E S

1. To ensure that all livestock are treated with respect and care with their welfare at the forefront of all we do.
2. Our lamb is ethically hand-selected from Merino sheep, which are bred to ensure high eating quality standards, ultimately ensuring a consistent, sustainable and traceable premium product.
3. Our farming enterprise places high importance on family, and we work side by side every day, along with positively contributing to the local community and shining a positive light on farming and agriculture.
