

12 DAYS OF HOMEMADE CHRISTMAS PRESENTS, DAY 12 CHRISTMAS PUDDING

12 days of homemade Christmas presents
Day 12???? Christmas Pudding

Talk about saving the best for last! This recipe comes to us from deep in the Local is Lovely blog archives and before that, from Anna Derham aka @derhaminteriors' late Grandma Booth.

Thank you so much Anna for sharing this with us all, it's a super easy, very delicious pudding recipe that really doesn't need to be made months in advance and I think tastes wonderful, full of bright flavour with a lovely spiced, nutty crumb.

It might seem funny to suggest giving someone a Christmas pudding but actually, what a treat that would be, especially for those of us who haven't been organised this year and had ours made and sitting quietly in the dark since October.

Thanks Anna. X
